

WOMEN'S BRAIN HEALTH CONFERENCE

Featured presentations

Rethinking Estrogen, Yet Again: The Science and Politics of Hormone Therapy in Menopause

Carol Tavris, Social Psychologist & Co-
Author, Estrogen
Matters

Mom on a Mission: Getting Government to Enact a National Perinatal Mental Health Strategy Through The Power Of Media And Advocacy

Patricia Tomasi,
Journalist & Co-
Founder, Canadian
Perinatal Mental Health
Collaborative

Hot-Old-Tired- Bitchy-Fat: How One Women's Health Advocate Is Rewriting The Script On Menopause

Shirley Weir, author and founder of MenopauseChicks

May 11 – 12, 2020

Robert H. Lee Alumni Centre
The University of British Columbia

Abstracts due

February 20, 2020

All welcome. Travel awards available courtesy of the Women's Brain Health Initiative. Topics include: hormone therapy, mental and cognitive health, menopause, pregnancy, metabolism, & traumatic brain injury.

Register early to attend: Early bird pricing ends March 10th

<https://womenshealthresearch.ubc.ca/2020-womens-brain-health-conference>

Special thanks to our sponsors:

