THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE

IM AMBULATORY SITE LEAD: VANCOUVER CENTRAL
(VGH Hospital and Community)
UNDERGRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

The Department of Medicine at the University of British Columbia (UBC) is seeking internal applications for the position of Ambulatory Site Lead: Vancouver Central for our Undergraduate Medical Education Program.

This position is located at or near Vancouver General Hospital in Vancouver, British Columbia. Successful candidates must currently hold a UBC tenure stream or clinical faculty appointment or be eligible for appointment to a clinical rank.

This position reports to the Program Director, Undergraduate Medical Education and the Associate Director, Undergraduate Medical Education, UBC Department of Medicine.

The incumbent will be responsible for the continuous development, delivery and management of the two week Ambulatory elective at the Vancouver Central health sites. S/he is expected to keep abreast of the current policies and procedures of the UBC Year 3 Undergraduate Program and will ensure the Program continues to meet accreditation standards. With the help of an administrative assistant (0.5 FTE), the successful candidate will oversee the rotation content, assist with preceptor recruitment and trouble shoot issues that arise. The incumbent will also deliver one scheduled teaching session per rotation and be responsible for completing the students’ final assessment including a review meeting at the close of each two week block. It is expected that 2 or 3 students will be assigned to the rotation at a time.

The successful applicant will have extensive knowledge of the postgraduate medical education at UBC, within Canada and abroad.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Unit, or Indigenous person. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply. However, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

The appointment will commence December 1, 2022 or at a later date mutually agreeable to both parties. The annual stipend is $12,500, with an estimated time commitment of half a day to 1 day per week. This position will be renewed on an annual basis.

Please submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, letter of support from your site director and the names of two references no later than November 30, 2022 to:
